CODE OF PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES FOR FAIR DISCLOSURE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Principles of fair disclosure of UPSI

- (i) The Company Secretary and Compliance Officer of the Company is designated as Chief Investor Relations Officer (CIRO) to deal with dissemination of information and disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- (ii) There shall be Prompt public disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available.
- (iii) Uniform and universal dissemination of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to avoid selective disclosure shall be ensured.
- (iv) The Company shall share the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in its ordinary course of business.
- (v) Investors, research personnel and analysts should only be given access to Generally Available Information.
- (vi) The Company shall handle Unpublished Price Sensitive Information on a "need to know" basis, i.e., Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within and outside HOEC who need to know such UPSI to discharge their duty and whose possession of such UPSI will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse thereof.
- (vii) The Company shall share the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information for discharge of any legal obligations.
- (viii) The Company shall share the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information if sought by regulatory authorities for specified reasons.

- (ix) The Board of Directors shall ensure that appropriate and fair response shall be provided to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by regulatory authorities.
- (x) The Board of Directors shall ensure that they develop best practices to make transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on the official website to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.
- (xi) Company Secretary and Compliance Officer shall obtain prior approval of Chairman or Managing Director depending upon the nature of sensitivity of the information before releasing to the Stock Exchanges.
- (xii) The Directors and employees of the Company shall promptly refer any queries or requests for verification of market rumours received from the stock exchanges or from the press or media or from any other source to the CISO. Replies to all queries or requests for verification of rumours shall be sent only after obtaining the approval of Chairman or Managing Director.
- (xiii) The Company shall take extreme care and caution when dealing with analysts' questions and response may be given later on in consultation with the Board/Chairman or Managing Director. If answer to any question requires dissemination of Price Sensitive Information, the Chairman or Managing Director/CISO shall ensure that the same shall be disseminated to the stock exchanges and uploaded on the website of the Company to make it generally available, before responding to the question raised by the analysts, research personnel etc.
- (xiv) Whenever the Company proposes to organize meetings with investment analysts/institutional investors, the Company shall post relevant information on its website after every such meeting. Presentations shall not contain UPSI and the same shall be placed on the website of the Company and provided to the stock exchanges for placing on their websites.

Determination of legitimate purpose for the purpose of disclosure of UPSI

The term "legitimate purpose" shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions under SEBI PIT Regulations as well as HOEC's policies framed thereunder.

Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered an "Insider" for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with the Regulations. The Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of UPSI.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR REGULATING, MONITORING AND REPORTING OF TRADING BY INSIDERS

TRADING WINDOW

A notional trading window as specified herein below shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the Designated Persons:

- (i) The trading period, during which trading on Stock exchanges is permitted as hereinafter provided is called 'trading window'.
- (ii) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published and also during periods as determined by the Compliance Officer and the re-opening of the trading window shall be after Forty-eight hours after the information is made public.
- (iii) All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- (iv) The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the Designated Persons of the Company when he/she determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
- (v) The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re- opening of the trading window, which shall be forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- (vi) The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

CHINESE WALL

The Company shall adopt the Chinese Walls procedures, and processes for permitting any designated person to "cross the wall":

- (i) Physical separation of departments to insulate them from each other.
The employees in the respective areas shall not communicate any price sensitive information to the other areas. In exceptional circumstances the employees in the restricted areas may be brought 'over the wall' and given confidential information on the basis of 'need to know' criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.
- (ii) Monitoring by the Compliance Officer of the effectiveness of the Chinese Wall and imposing disciplinary sanctions where there has been a breach of the Wall.
- (iii) If an employee/outsider receives UPSI from the inside area of the Company, it is treated that the said Employee or outsider has crossed the wall. Pursuant to crossing the wall, the employee becomes an Insider. Such employee/outsider must be subject to all restrictions and prohibitions as required under this Code, the Regulations and policies relating to Chinese Walls. An employee shall no longer be considered to be an insider when the UPSI is published and are no longer significant to the market.

RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATION AND TRADING BY INSIDERS

Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

- (i) No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (ii) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (iii) Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
 - a) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company;
 - b) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

- (i) No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of UPSI. Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:
 - a) The transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between promoters who were in possession of the same UPSI without being in breach of Regulation 3 of SEBI PIT Regulations, 2015 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;
 - b) In the case of non-individual insiders: –
 - The individuals who were in possession of such UPSI were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such UPSI when they took the decision to trade; and
 - Appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated, and no UPSI was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;
 - c) The trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with the procedure hereinafter specified.
- (ii) In the case of connected persons, the onus of establishing that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information shall be on such connected persons.

RESTRICTIONS TO TRADE BY INSIDERS

- (i) All directors, officers and designated persons and their immediate relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only within a valid trading window.

Valid trading window shall mean a period other than the prohibited period. Prohibited period means:

- Period beginning from the end of every quarter till 48 hours from the time the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is made public is considered and approved by the Board and informed to the Stock Exchanges.
- Such other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time in consultation with any MD / CEO of the Company.

- (ii) Despite the valid trading window being open, trading by designated persons would only be allowed, in excess of the threshold limits (10,000 Shares), subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer and provided that they are not in possession of any UPSI at the time they carry out the transaction.
- (iii) The designated person shall not enter into a contra trade for the quantity precleared for a period of not less than 6 months.

PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

All Designated Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company and if the value of the proposed trades is above Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value), regardless of whether the valid trading window is open or closed, should obtain pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer for each transaction.

However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information irrespective of trading window being opened/closed.

The pre-clearance procedure shall be as hereunder:

- (i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form 1 to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by the Compliance Officer in that behalf.
- (ii) A Declaration as in Form 2 shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
- a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or is not in possession of "UPSI" up to the time of signing of the declaration.
 - b) That in case the designated employee has access to receive "UPSI" after the signing of the declaration but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall forthwith inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she shall refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public and after a lapse of 48 hours thereof.
 - c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- (iii) The application for pre-clearance shall be approved by the Compliance Officer.
- (iv) In case of transactions involving the compliance officer, such applications for pre-clearance shall be approved by the Managing Director of the Company.

- (v) Before granting pre-clearance in Form 3 the Compliance Officer shall have due regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- (vi) All Specified/Designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days from the date of the approval of pre-clearance.
- (vii) The Specified/Designated Persons shall file within two days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal and changes in the holdings, with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed Form 4 In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall also be required to be filed in Form 4.
- (viii) If the order is not executed within seven trading days from the date of approval is given, the employee/director must seek fresh pre-clearance of the transaction.

All Specified/Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction (shall not execute a Contra Trade) i.e., sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Specified/Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case any contra trade is executed inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

The Compliance Officer may lift the ban on contra trade in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the trading window is closed.

Pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

TRADING PLAN

- (i) An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- (ii) Trading plan shall: –
 - a) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - b) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - c) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - (i) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - (ii) nature of the trade;
 - (iii) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - (iv) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.
 - d) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

- (iii) The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
- (iv) Pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.
- (v) Trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.
- (vi) The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.
However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any UPSI in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.
- (vii) If the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (c) (iv) of clause (ii) above, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed. The Compliance Officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.
